The Hydeyoshi Maru and another steamer rescued the survivors.

PRIEST'S SLAYER DOOMED.

Sentenced to Die on Gallows in July. New Trial Denied.

Denver, Colo., March 24.—In the criminal division of the district court here Judge Greely W. Whitney denied the motion for a new trial for Giuseppe Alia, convicted of the murder of Father Leo Heinrichs, whom he shot to death in St. Elizabeth's Catholic church, this city, Sunday, Feb. 23, and sentenced him to be hanged during the week beginning July 12 next.

Friday night Alia made repeated attempts to commit suicide by beating his head against the iron bars of his cell. His head was covered with bruises when he was brought to court and he was so weak he had to be supported by officers.

When asked by the court if he had anything to say, Alia said to the interpreter:

"I did not do anything."

There is no likelihood of an appeal to the supreme court as Alia has no funds and there has been no proof introduced of errors in the trial.

STATE IS NOW PAID IN FULL.

Receiver for Neal Bank Gave Check for Balance Saturday.

Atlanta, March 24.—State Treasurer R. E. Park, Saturday received from the Central Bank and Trust Corporation, receiver for the defunct Neal Bank, a check for $65,529.90, being the balance due on the state's deposits with that institution.

The state treasurer was paid $125,000 some days ago, and the court ordered that the balance be paid within twenty days.

The depositors who fought the state's claim to a prior lien on the assets of the Neal bank did not give the required bond to prevent the payment of these funds to the state, though they have already appealed from Judge Ellis' decision to the supreme court.

To Organize the Miners.

Nashville, Tenn., March 24.—A Madisonville, Ky., dispatch says it is rumored that several hundred union miners will arrive in Hopkins county from Indiana for the purpose of organizing the coal miners. The strike in that section has been on since the first of the year. The mine operators are preparing to resist any attack that may be made on their property. At the largest mine in the county a number of men are at work building a stockade around the mine. Other mine owners in different parts of the county are preparing for trouble.

Wealthy Land Owner Suicides.

Nashville, Tenn., March 24.—Jeb Jewell, a wealthy land owner living near Auburn, Cannon county, Tennessee, committed suicide at a early hour Monday by hanging himself. Ill health was the cause.

Pleasure Party Drowned.

Lubeck, Germany, March 24.—Ten members of a pleasure party were drowned by the upsetting of a motor farry boat on the lake of Ratzeburger. Four other passengers were saved.

BLAZES WAY FOR CONGRESS.

President Will Send Legislative Program to Congress This Week.

Washington, D. C., March 24.—President Roosevelt has determined on a legislative program, the enactment of which will be urged upon congress in a special message, which he said Saturday will go in this week.

Each of the measures to be proposed involves perplexing difficulties, and each will have far-reaching effect on the business and economic conditions of the country.

The program is the product of important conferences through which the president has been put in possession of the views of all interests concerned. Likewise the attitude of the leaders in both branches of congress has been made known. Its success depends upon the combined effort which he believes can be brought to bear in behalf of the whole plan by those affected, especially by some of its features.

The program includes:

A declaration in favor of a revision of the tariff in a special session be held after March 4, 1909.

An amendment to the Sherman anti-trust law so as to make important concessions to combination of both labor and capital.

Limiting the powers of certain courts in the use of the injunction in labor disputes.

Passage of an employers' liability bill.

Passage of the Aldrich financial bill.

"WILL TAKE HIS MEDICINE."

Man Who Skipped Out Being Carried Back for Trial.

Mobile, Ala., March 24.—Captain Adams, chief of detectives, and Detective Louis B. Johnson, of the New York detective force, passed through Mobile Monday morning with Ira J. Bayless, formerly assistant superintendent of the Prudential Life Insurance company at their branch agency, Cohoes, N. Y., who is alleged to have skipped the country one year and a half ago, taking with him $150,000 of the company's funds, whom they arrested in Danier, Cal., near San Francisco, three weeks ago.

Bayless, according to the statement of Detective Johnson, has confessed the deed and has no defense, saying he will just have to go back to New York and "take his medicine."

High License For Baltimore.

Annapolis, Md., March 24.—A high license bill for Baltimore city was passed Saturday by the senate. It has already passed the house. Under its provisions saloons and clubs which now pay $250 annually will pay $500 next year, $750 the year after and $1,000 the third year. The license will then remain at $1,000. The operation of the law is expected to cause a reduction of 25 or 30 cents in the city tax rate at the end of the three years.

Notice of Wage Reduction.

New Bedford, Mass., March 24.—Notices of wage reduction averaging 10 per cent, were posted in all the cotton cloth mills in this city Monday. The reduction will become operative on April 6. The yarn mills which are outside the New Bedford cotton manufacturers' association will, it is under Wood, take similar action. About 28,000 operatives will be affected, 16,000 in the cloth mills and 6,000 in the yarn mills.

Fatal Kerosene Explosion.

Dayton, March 24.—Mrs. Florence Bloer, aged forty, and her son, aged thirteen, were fatally injured Monday in a kerosene explosion at their home. The boy tried to hasten the fire in the stove by pouring kerosene over the smouldering blaze, and there was a terrific explosion. Both were terribly burned, and are dying in the hospital from their burns. The woman tried to rescue her son.

Augusta, Ga., March 24.—Over a long distance telephone from Trenton to Augusta Herald Monday morning, Dr. Hunter, physician attending Senator B. R. Tillman, made the following statement: "Senator Tillman is much improved. He is resting well, relishes his food and should be able to leave his bed within a few days."

SENATOR BRYAN DEAD

Seventh Representative Claimed by Death in a Year.

SUCCEEDED SEN. MALLORY

Florida Member, After a Brief Illness at Washington, D. C., Answers Last Call—He Was of Delicate Health and Only 32 Years Old.

Washington, March 24.—United States Senator William James Bryan, of Florida, died at Providence hospital at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning of typhoid fever. It was only seventy-three days since he took his seat as the successor of the late Senator Stephen R. Mallory, who died December 23 and thirty-three days of that time was spent in his fight against disease. Several times during Mr.

SENATOR W. J. BRYAN.

Bryan's illness his friends despaired of his recovery, but as late as Saturday night the report was given out that his condition had taken a turn for the better. His death, therefore, came as a surprise and a distinct shock.

In physique Mr. Bryan was unfitted to withstand a protracted fever. He was slight of build and of a nervous temperament. He came to Washington early in January from the warm climate of Florida and from the day of his arrival was far from well. Finally he was compelled to give up and was taken to Providence hospital. During the last few days of his illness he was attended by specialists from Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore.

In Mr. Bryan the senate loses the seventh member by death since the adjournment of the fifty-ninth congress on March 4, a year ago. They were the two late senators from Alabama, Mr. Morgan and Mr. Pettus; Mr. Mallory, of Florida; Mr. Latimer, of South Carolina; Mr. Proctor, of Vermont; Mr. Whyte, of Maryland and Mr. Bryan.

Curiously, the last two were the oldest and the youngest members of the body. Mr. Whyte was eighty-one years of age, and Mr. Bryan less than thirty-two.

Mr. Bryan was born in Orange county, Florida, Oct. 10, 1876. He attended the public schools of his state and Emory college, Georgia, graduating from the latter institution in 1890. Three years later he was graduated from Washington and Lee university and in 1893 began the practice of law in Jacksonville, Fla. Until a short time before his appointment to succeed Mr. Mallory in the senate, he had served as solicitor of the Duval county criminal court. He was married to Miss Janet Allen, of Lexington, Va.

WHO WILL SUCCEED BRYAN?

Much Speculation as to Whom Governor Broward Will Name.

Pensacola, Fla., March 24.—Speculation is rife here as to whom Governor Broward will name as the successor to United States Senator William James Bryan, who died in Washington, Sunday.

Mr. Bryan was named to succeed Senator S. R. Mallory. He accepted ment being announced Christmas day, and although he was in Washington only a few weeks when he was taken ill, he accomplished much for Florida, and particularly for Pensacola.

The Florida campaign is now in full blast with three candidates for United States senator—Congressman William B. Lamar, of Monticello; John S. Beard, of Pensacola, and Albert Gilchrist, of Jacksonville. It is not believed the governor will name any of these parties and the most plausible selection he could make at this time is believed to be State Senator Thomas F. West, of Santa Rosa, who is not only a close friend to the governor, but brilliant and able.

Ex-Senator Samuel Pasco, of Monticello, was an applicant for the position when Mr. Bryan was named, and it is probable that he will again apply.

WORKING WOMEN OF U. S.

There Are About 6,000,000—To Form an Organization.

New York, March 24.—Organization of the working women of the United States is proposed by the Women's Trade league, one of whose organizers, Miss Leonora O'Reilly, told the members of the Central Federated Union at their meeting Sunday that there are between five and six million working women in the United States and that the league would not cease its efforts until it had organized them all.

Miss O'Reilly asked for speakers for the mass meeting in aid of the movement which is to be held Friday evening in the labor temple. As a result of her request, Charles E. Russell will speak on "Over-Employed Women" and John Spargo, on "The Unemployed."

NO BREACH IN FRIENDSHIP.

Japan Enthusiastic Over the Coming of the American Fleet.

Tokio, March 24.—The press without exception is enthusiastic over the announcement of the American fleet and the government is receiving considerable praise for extending the invitation.

The consensus of newspaper opinion is that the prompt acceptance of the invitation shows the friendship of America for Japan, while the visit of the fleet will suffice to show the world the impossibility of breach of friendly relations existing between the two countries.

Dispatches received indicate that the fleet will arrive in November.

The newspapers are urging the government not to limit the expense of its reception.

In Interest Copyright Law.

New York, March 24.—A delegation of theatrical men will go to Washington this week as a committee from the National Association of Theatrical producing managers to attend the hearings of the committee on patents in the interest of a full and comprehensive copyright law. In Race for Mayor.

Atlanta, March 24.—Jim Woodward is in the race for mayor. Twice mayor of Atlanta, with experience as councilman and alderman probably greater than any man in the city, Mr. Woodward, who is officially James G. Woodward, but whom everybody knows as "Jim," is easily one of the most striking political figures in Atlanta. He says he is not a prohibitionist, but would uphold the law.

Steamer Went Ashore.

Norfolk, Va., March 24.—An unknown steamship went ashore Monday on Hatteras Beach, near Burnett's lifesaving station. The vessel struck during a heavy fog and rain. A U. S. seacoast telegraph message from Hatteras says the lifesavers have gotten a line to the steamer, but the crew have refused to leave.

Fruit Crop Not Hurt

25 PERSONS INJURED

Collision of Elevated Trains in Chicago—Brakes Failed.

PANIC FOLLOWED THE CRASH

Many of Those Who Escaped Injury When the Cars Collided, Were More or Less Injured in the Scramble that Followed for the Exits.

Chicago, March 24.—More than 25 persons were injured in a rear-end collision between a Northwestern elevated and an Oak Park elevated train at State and Van Buren streets early Monday. The trains consisted of three coaches each, all of which were crowded.

A panic followed the crash and a great many of those who escaped injuries when the trains came together, suffered bruises in the scramble for the exits.

The Oak Park train was standing at the State street station when the Northwestern train, turning into Van Buren street, crashed into it.

Among the injured were C. C. Stern and D. R. Pollock, both of New York.

Failure of the brakes to work properly is assigned as the cause of the collision.

KILLS HER BABIES.

Mother Then Takes Own Life Holding a Crucifix.

Fall River, Mass., March 24.—With a crucifix clasped in her right hand and with a rosary hanging from her arm, Mrs. Florida Terrien, aged 25 years, and her four-year-old daughter, Mary, and two-months-old boy, Joseph, were found dead in the kitchen of their home early Sunday by the woman's husband, Joseph Terrien.

The coroner said after an examination that the woman had killed herself and the two children with illuminating gas. Two gas jets and the cocks of the gas stove in the room were found turned on.

According to Mr. Terrien he and his wife, with the children, passed last evening with friends, returning home at 1 o'clock in the morning. He went to bed immediately, taking with him his daughter Mary, and leaving his wife and the little boy in the kitchen.

Terrien said he was awakened Sunday by a choking sensation, and detected the odor of gas. His daughter Mary was not at his side. Going to the kitchen he found his wife in a chair, clasping a crucifix, with the children wrapped in blankets lying at her feet. All three were dead.

Mrs. Terrien had been in good health, but it is thought that family cares had unbalanced her mind.

ROBBED PAYMASTER'S SAFE.

Thief in Some Manner Obtained Combination, It Is Thought.

Washington, March 24.—The official report of the investigation held on board the cruiser Milwaukee of the taking of $3,800 from the safe of Paymaster Shipwith, shows that the safe was locked and the paymaster was not away from the ship during the time when the abstraction of the funds must have occurred.

The vessel was at target practice in Magdalena bay at the time. The report shows that all possible precautions were taken and that the robber in some way must have obtained the combination of the safe.

MUNICIPAL LEAGUE NOMINATED TICKET

Rousing Meeting Held, at Which City Officers Were Named.

JUDGE H. DAVIS FOR MAYOR

T. W. Shands, H. S. Graves, C. Y. Crawford and S. J. Burnett Named by the League for Aldermen—Interesting Set of Resolutions.

The political pot, which has been at a simmering point for some time, was set to boiling Monday night, when a meeting of the Municipal League was held for the purpose of nominating officers for the ensuing term, to be certified to the City Council, and to be voted for in the April election.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Hon. E. C. F. Sanchez, after which the routine of business for which the session was held was taken up.

The committee on nominations and by-laws made the following report:

"Whereas, It has been suggested, or has come to the knowledge of your committee from parties authorized to speak for the citizens who are not members of this league, that they would name Horatio Davis as a candidate for mayor, and in fact that a petition had been circulated putting him in nomination for mayor, and

"Whereas, We believe that his nomination would be satisfactory to the citizens generally, and being desirous of doing any and everything tending to the harmony and welfare of the city, therefore be it

"Resolved: That we do hereby recommend that he be endorsed and nominated for mayor."

"Whereas, The people of North Gainesville have nominated H. S. Graves for alderman, and believing that he will be satisfactory to the people generally, therefore we recommend that he be endorsed and nominated for alderman; and we recommend that the following named be nominated for aldermen: T. W. Shands, C. Y. Crawford and S. J. Burnett.

"Your committee desires to say to the league that they have labored earnestly and zealously to bring about harmony in the next municipal election. We endeavored to have the opposition (or non-leaguers) to suggest or name a part of the ticket, and the league the other part; but at the very last moment this arrangement fell through.

"The names presented are from among our very best citizens. We believe they could fill the various positions for which they have been selected with credit to themselves and satisfaction to the citizens.

"Respectfully submitted,

"J. PAGE PARKER,

"Chairman Com. on Nominations."

The report of the committee was received, and the committee discharged with thanks.

It was ordered that the league nominate for mayor Horatio Davis.

For alderman, T. W. Shands was nominated in the place of I. E. Webster, resigned, for the short term, and aldermen for the full term, H. S. Graves, C. Y. Crawford and S. J. Burnett. They were nominated by a rising vote of the house.

Ordered, that the names of the candidates be presented to the council to be placed on the ballot to be voted for at the next city election.

POLECAT ROUTED EDITORS.

Little Animal Created Commotion in Montgomery Advertiser Office.

Montgomery, Ala., March 24.—A polecat, of the strongest variety, appeared suddenly in the Montgomery Advertiser's office at 8 o'clock Sunday night, and drove so many employees from the building that the printing of the early edition was seriously interferred with. Linotype operators were driven from their chairs on the third floor on the animal's first appearance. When he had accomplished this the polecat with easy lopes ascended to the news editor's room, on the fourth floor.

Before it was hardly realized that he was present the cat had run the night editor, the telegraph editor, two associate press operators and a leased wire man down stairs into the streets without their coats.

Foreman Mike Ford, with a hurriedly borrowed rifle, killed the little animal behind the news editor's desk. The building was disinfected, but it was over an hour before the employees could go back to work.

It developed, on investigation, that the cat had been chased into the building at an early hour Saturday morning by two small negroes, and had remained quiet until disturbed by the workers in the early part of the night.

Throughout the day it hid in a hole in the composing room.

ROBBERS MAKE HAUL.

Four Residences in New York's Fashionable District Were Entered.

New York, March 24.—Burglars entered four residences in the vicinity of Fifth avenue and Eighty-Fourth street in the heart of the fashionable district early Sunday. They failed, however, to get away with anything of much value in three of them. From the fourth, that of George O. Thatcher, they took about $1,500 worth of gold spoons and $500 worth of small jewelry. They jumped from a high fence in the rear of the house of Benjamin Thaw, uncle of Harry K. Thaw, to the fire escape on the rear of the Thatcher residence, boldly carrying their plunder from the last named dwelling out the front door under the light of a street lamp directly opposite the house.

The other houses entered were those of Colonel Albert E. Hilton, Mrs. N. F. Dana and Mrs. Sidney Smith. They were not disturbed in the Smith house, but apparently took nothing, while alarms given by servants frightened them from the other two.

NOTABLE MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Of Special Value to Many Here in Gainesville.

A notable medical discovery and one that appeals especially to many people in Gainesville is the combination of stomach remedies in the Mi-o-na treatment. This preparation has worked wonders in cases of indigestion or weak stomach.

It acts specifically upon the walls of the stomach and bowels, strengthening and stimulating them so that they readily take care of the food that is eaten without distress or suffering.

So positive are the good effects following the use of Mi-o-na that the remedy is sold by J. W. McCollum & Co. under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails to cure. With an offer like this, none can afford to suffer with indigestion or stomach troubles. A 50-cent box of Mi-o-na will do more good than half-a-dozen boxes of ordinary digestive tablets.

Gave Girl Strychnine and Then Took a Dose Himself.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 24.—Miss Nettie Pisech, aged seventeen, daughter of Mrs. Ida Pisech, died Monday from strychnine poisoning administered by her sweetheart, Leo Wojeinski. The fatal drug was mixed with ice cream. When Wojeinski learned of the death of his sweetheart, he hastened to make the tragedy a double one by taking a dose himself. He died an hour later.

The crime was probably inspired because the man's parents had objected to a proposed marriage to the young girl.

THE CITY COUNCIL CERTIFIED NAMES

Large Crowd Was Present at Meeting Tuesday Evening.

SEVERAL PETITIONS PRESENTED

Requesting that Candidates for Various Offices be Placed on Ticket Were Received and Acted Upon—Municipal League and Anti-League.

The City Council met Tuesday evening for the purpose of receiving and certifying names for the various city offices, a large crowd being present.

There seemed to be little interest manifested in municipal politics until Monday, when the Municipal League nominated its ticket. It was on Tuesday that several petitions for alderman were circulated and signed, in accordance with the rules providing that twenty-five or more names should be affixed to a petition for any person to enter the race for any office who had not been nominated by any convention.

A deep interest was manifested in the petitions. The league agreed with the non-leaguers upon the mayoralty, but their differences seemed to vary as to the aldermen. There was no friction on any other of the names certified, all seeming to be satisfied with the remainder of the ticket.

The following names were certified in regular order, and will be placed on the ticket:

For Mayor—Horatio Davis.

For Clerk and Treasurer—J. Maxey Dell.

For Assessor—J. B. Douglass, B. R. Colson, J. Fletcher Hill, W. S. McDowall.

For Tax Collector—T. B. Ellis.

For Marshal—B. T. Arnow, C. L. Kite, Chas. Pinkoson.

For Aldermen—S. J. Burnett, H. S. Graves, C. Y. Crawford, B. F. Hampton, Geo. K. Broome, J. A. Goodwin, the former three being League candidates, as was also T. W. Shands.

For Alderman, unexpired term of I. B. Webster—T. W. Shands.

For Member Board of Public Works—W. W. Hampton.

The election will be held on April 14th.

Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let it help you? J. W. McCollum & Co.

GAINESVILLE CONVALESCENTS NEED VINOL

It Hastens Recovery by Creating Strength.

There is just one thing the matter with a person who has been sick—that is, weakness.

To all such people in Gainesville we recommend our delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, as the very best strength-creator we have ever sold in our store.

Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates an appetite, promotes sound sleep, makes rich, red blood, and builds up a depleted system to health and vigor.

This is because Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal and strength-creating elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, with the useless, nauseating oil eliminated and tonic iron added.

We return money to those who try Vinol and receive no benefit.—W. M. Johnson, Druggist, Gainesville, Fla.

ARCHER NEWS.

Archer, March 24.—Miss Annie McLain entertained her music class on Saturday afternoon, the occasion being a St. Patrick's luncheon. After being delightfully entertained with music and games the little folks were invited into the dining-room, where an elegant luncheon was spread, the table being decorated in St. Patrick emblems, the center-piece being a statue bearing the Irish flag, around which a snake was coiled. Attractive spiders, bugs and frogs were part of the decorations. A large cake iced to represent a basket filled with candy and decorated with maiden-hair ferns added very much to the beauty of the table. Miss McLain had very dainty shamrock place cards, napkins and pretty little boxes of candy for the favors.

The refreshments were sandwiches, olives, pickles, crackers, stuffed eggs, salad kisses, ambrosia, ice cream in shamrock shapes and cakes.

It was with great regret that the time came for the little folks to bid their hostess good-bye, as they had spent such a pleasant afternoon.

Received a Fine Cow.

The Florida Experimental Station, being the agricultural department of the University of Florida, has received from the American Shorthorn Association at Chicago, a fine heifer, which will be used and exhibited at the University grounds, to demonstrate the relative value of catttle when fattened on the products of Florida.

The Shorthorn is a beef cattle, and is proving very prolific and fine in the sections which are feeding the products which prove profitable to them and their conditions.

Through the courtesy of the American Shorthorn Breeders' Association, three Shorthorns have recently been sent to the University, agricultural department, as experiments, this shipment being the last to arrive. The management of the agricultural department at the University are well pleased with what they have seen of the Shorthorn breed, and will give their report after a thorough investigation.

For Diseases of the Skin.

Nearly all diseases of the skin such as eczema, tetter, salt rheum and barbers' itch, are characterized by an intense itching and smarting, which often makes life a burden and disturbs sleep and rest. Quick relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Salve. It allays the itching and smarting almost instantly. Many cases have been cured by its use. For sale by all druggists.

Road Camps Moved.

Supervisor J. R. Emerson, who is superintending the construction of the Newberry and Gainesville road, Tuesday moved his camp from the vicinity of the Bock sawmill, where it has been located for the past few months, to a point about two miles beyond.

Mr. Emerson has a good force of men at work, and is making fine progress.

A Pleasant Physic.

When you want a pleasant physic give Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets a trial. They are mild and gentle in their action and always produce a pleasant cathartic effect. Call at any drug store for a free sample.

WINDY MARCH IS HERE.

Dust from Streets Filled People's Nostrils, Ears and Eyes.

The weather for the past two or three days has been very disagreeable to pedestrians, owing to the high March winds which have prevailed. The dust from the streets has been very annoying, penetrating the nostrils any eyes of those who had to be upon the streets, and probably causing some to say bad things and many others to think them.

On Monday the street sprinkler was set to work after dinner, but not until several had expressed their opinion about the fellow who had it in charge. The constant rains of the forenoon Tuesday had a tendency to lay the dust for the day, and, despite the wind, pedestrians could proceed with comparative ease.

Pof. H. A. Howell of Havana, Cuba, Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Cure.

"As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H. A. Howell, of Howell's American School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd our baby was taken sick with a very severe cold; the next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now, three days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by all druggists.

Train Service Reduced.

Patrons of the Seaboard Air Line on the Cedar Key division will regret very much to learn that the daily freight train to Cedar Key has been discontinued, and the service now will be performed three times a week with this train.

This train has afforded a great convenience to those who desire to come to Gainesville on business, and it is hoped that the full service will soon be re-inaugurated.

Will Go to California.

Friends of F. H. Beeman and family will regret to learn that they expect to make their departure for California in a short time, where they will in future reside.

Mr. Beeman had the contract for installing the city sewerage, which has been completed several months. He and his estimable family have added a great deal to the social life of the city, and all will regret to see them leave.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

The Twice-a-Week Sun is an eight-page, forty-column paper, published every Monday and Thursday, and contains all the news of the week, local, State and general, and will be mailed, postage free, to any part of the United States or Canada, for $1.00 a year—in advance.

All advertising bills become due after first appearance of advertisement, unless otherwise stipulated in contract. Parties not known to us will be required to pay for advertising in advance. Address, THE DAILY SUN, GAINESVILLE, FLA.

Try the experiment of "too much" advertising for a while—it pays better than "too little."

The Thaw divorce seems a pitiful anti-climax to such a well-staged melodramatic and smutique trial.

The man or woman who shows cleverness and persistency in advertising for work will find the kind which requires and rewards these qualities.

Two things have reminded us that spring must be within easy reach—the sweet song of the mocking-bird, and "that tired feeling." We are surely on the brink.

A Philadelphia man of wealth is dead, and his friends are amazed to learn that he was married seven years ago. It takes a long while for news to circulate in the Quaker City.

Auto wheel chains blamed for spreading of consumption germs, latest move against the modern vehicle. Next to come will be a law to compel owners to perfume the gasoline.

It is reported that the railroads are hoarding coal in prospect of miners' strike. Yes, there will have to be something started to keep up the price as the hot weather approaches.

No merchant can afford to underestimate the force or merit of his competitor's advertising—nor to ignore the need of meeting and "beating" the challenge and the pace!

Simply because a man asks his best girl to marry him five or six times before she consents, is no reason why he should consider himself a fool—though he may have good reason to think so afterward.

Gainesville offers her last short skirt to some ambitious town who wants to don shoe-top dresses. We believe we have a bid in fair Alachua, who seems to be aspiring to make her debut—but maybe Palatka will outbid her.

Hon. A. P. Baskin died at the home of his son, Dr. J. G. Baskin, at Dunnellon, on Saturday last. He had been a citizen of Florida for more than thirty years and represented Marion county in the Legislature of 1887. In 1892 he was the nominee of the Populists for Governor, but was defeated by Governor Mitchell. As a man and citizen he was admired by all who knew him, and his death, which resulted from cancer of the stomach, will be generally regretted.

It makes a fellow feel good these mornings, when he is awakened by the constant roar of whistles from the various factories, calling the men to work, and reminding them that we must be up and doing to assist in making Gainesville "better than what it is;" and it makes the fellow who has got the energy to get out of bed at the sound of those 6-o'clock whistles feel better to see the men passing, happy and whistling, with their well-filled dinner-pails, going to their respective places of employment. We've got a big ginger-cake to wager to a doughnut that not another city in Florida the population of Gainesville can boast of as many busy places of industry—and we are all proud.

BLIND ORATOR SWAYS MANY.

A man totally blind would hardly seem adapted for modern political life, yet one so afflicted has fought through three exciting campaigns and has just been elected United States Senator from Oklahoma. The blindness of Thomas Pryor Gore was caused by two painful accidents. At eight a boy playmate injured his left eye with a stone; three years later he himself shot a toy arrow into the other.

When his father suggested his attending a school for the blind, he declared, "I will go to school here. A school for the blind will furnish neither the books nor the opportunity I seek." Events justified his choice, says The April Delineator; he gained the highest honors there and at law school and college. At nineteen he was nominee for the Legislature; at twenty-two, populistic delegate-at-large in Mississippi, and was unanimously selected in 1900 as Congressional standard-bearer for the same party in Texas.

He owes his success to his power as an orator. His memory is remarkable. It is recorded that at a meeting with an opposition speaker—Senator Money—Gore asked for a division of time. Disregarding his youth and blindness, Money replied: "I will speak as long as I please; you are at liberty to do the same."

For three hours he harangued, thinking to exhaust Gore's patience. The latter patiently bided his time, and then for four hours more entertained the howling appreciative audience. Page after page of The "Congressional Record" he quoted from memory—quotations that filled his antagonist with rage, but stripped him of every defense. Now Gore's opponents realize that he is not a man to be tampered with or ignored. His career in the Senate will be worth watching.

TONE OF CRACKED BELLS.

Every once in a while someone somewhere wants to know how to restore the tone of cracked bells. It is not usually a question of economy either, but often one of affection, for each bell has an individuality of tone that no substitute can replace to those who have heard it as a familiar voice through many years. Discussing this subject in its April number Popular Mechanics magazine states:

"Every attempt so far made to restore the tone of cracked bells has proved unsuccessful. In many instances the cracks have been filed and sawed out and hot bell metal has been poured in, but the results have been the same. Bell metal is an alloy composed of 75 per cent copper and 25 per cent tin.

"'The only way the tone of a cracked bell can be restored is by recasting it,' says the manager of the McShane Bell Company. 'There have been any number of experiments made by those claiming to restore the tone in various ways, but these experiments have never been successful.'

"The same assertion is made by Chester Meneely, of the Meneely Bell Company, who says that the hot bell metal will not fuse properly and the cracks appear after a few blows have been struck with the hammer."

It is gratifying to the people of Gainesville to hear strangers entering the city compliment us so enthusiastically on our steady growth. Like a young child being fed on a malt fat, the town is springing into maturity, which is evidenced by the rapidly-growing population, as shown by the edition of the city directory, just completed. A gain of 2,080 names in the short space of two years and a half in a town which only claimed (but had) 5,245 population at the time of the last census, is something to be proud of—and we all feel like throwing up our hats and yelling a little bit.

The Sun is glad to note that its local mention of the inability of the trash "gang" to remove the dead trash from the streets has had its effect, and that this debris, some of which had been lying in the streets for days, has been removed. The Sun did not desire, nor did it intend, to reflect discredit upon the present street force, over which Mr. W. S. McDowall has charge. It was not a question of discredit, but a question of deficiency, caused by lack of sufficient force to move this refuse. The Sun knows by personal experience, and appreciates the position, that the only thing necessary to the ambitious man's success is the proper facility—the co-operation of our neighbors and friends, and without this we are handicapped. Mr. McDowall has performed his work well so far as he has been enabled to do so, but it is probably a physical impossibility to cover such vast territory without encouragement and assistance; hence it is the duty of the City Council to furnish the means by which this work can be done within reason.

Since The Tallahassee True Democrat has suggested the name of Col. T. J. Appleyard, the brainy editor of The Lake City Index, for the office of State Comptroller, many of the leading newspapers of the State have taken up the subject, with the result that Col. Appleyard is gaining more popularity every day in this connection. The Sun heartily endorses him, as no better man in the State could be secured for the position. His service in public life for more than twenty years has fitted him peculiarly for the position of Comptroller, because he would enter the position thoroughly acquainted with his duties—and he would perform them. Brother Appleyard may put us down in his column—because we know him and appreciate his manhood and ability.

A photographer's electric automobile described and illustrated in The April Popular Mechanics is completely equipped to take, develop and print photographs. The storage battery which operates the car supplies light to the studio where cameras, backgrounds, lenses and head-rests are stored. The front compartment carries the developing sink, negative racks, trays and shelves for bottles and chemicals. On the roof is a turntable or stand to be used as a viewing point in photographing street scenes.

Perhaps in one of the store-ads. in the paper today you will read of something which will touch your interests so unmistakably that it would have been a personal misfortune to have overlooked it!

One of the most promising signs of universal peace is that war is getting to be too expensive an amusement for a nation to indulge in.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Orlando has gone into the business of killing off the English sparrows.

The Lamb grove at Palmetto turned out 35,000 boxes of oranges this year.

St. Luke's Hospital in Jacksonville is to have a new nome. The site has been selected and plans submitted.

At Richmond, in Lake county, peaches are still blooming, and if all things prove favorable there will be quite a crop for shipment.

Tampa has a prospect of an increased letter carrier service for its postoffice. It is a result of the urgent demand of Postmaster Bean that Tampa be given additional letter carriers.

Homestead growers are receiving very poor returns for the vegetables shipped, but are not discouraged enough to quit, hoping the market will take a turn in their favor soon. Something must be wrong, as the lowest yet heard from were 1 cent a crate for tomatoes.

The Cornwall Farm-Land Company of Chicago who made a purchase of 17,500 acres of land in Nassau county, near Hilliard, a few months ago, have decided to bring from the West a large number of farmers and colonize them upon this land for the purpose of cultivating the soil.

Last Saturday one of the fishing fleets of the E. J. Ricou Fish Company of Fort Pierce and Stuart brought to Stuart more than three thousand pounds of Spanish mackerel, and on Monday about twenty-five hundred pounds of blue fish, all caught in the ocean near the St. Lucie inlet.

The new Catholic church in course of construction in Jacksonville will have a seating capacity of 800. There will be six exits, so in case of accident the church can be cleared in a very short time. This edifice will cost $100,000, and will undoubtedly be the handsomest church in Jacksonville.

The Acme Fiber Extract factory, one of Titusville's chief industries, owned by C. A. Spencer of Boston, Mass., a large exporter of tannic acid, was completely destroyed by fire. One hundred barrels of acid, valued at $4,000, was destroyed in the warehouse, and the loss of the plant will be $50,000, covered by insurance. The fire will throw a large number of men out of employment. This industry was promoted by William Brown, former president of the Fort Dallas Bank, in 1898, and was a pioneer establishment of Florida's most valuable product.

NEWS NOTES FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, D. C., March 24.—Two extraordinary speeches have been delivered in the Senate during the past week, one by Senator Tillman and the other by Senator La Follette. The speech of the South Carolinian was, as usual, picturesque, being a wholesale denunciation of the President, of whom he said, "He is now planning a truce with rich malefactors and is ready to grant amnesty to all past offenders. The price of negro delegates in the South rises each day through improper use of Federal patronage. The most flagrant of all the executive neglects to enforce the law, a running sore, a cancer on the body politic, hated of all good citizens and denounced even by the President himself who anathematized it in bitter language, but who takes no steps to apply the remedy, is the failure to enenforce the plain letter of the law relating to the control of the national banks. The lavish use of bank resources and credit for years has borne fruit by enabling Napoleons of finance through the medium of the New York Stock Exchange to market billions of dollars of almost worthless stocks and to place these in the hands of helpless investors who have exchanged hard-earned money for them which has thus been diverted from the channels of legitimate business." Mr. Tillman was greeted with the usual crowded galleries and at times his remarkable statements and unique delivery elicited applause, until finally the Vice-President was obliged to threaten to clear the galleries unless it ceased.

Senator LaFollette denounced in unmeasured terms and tones the Aldrich bill, which he declared was being enacted in the interest of the railways, the Standard Oil Company and J. Pierpont Morgan. He charged that the recent panic and the entire financial stringency had been produced by Morgan, Rockefeller, et al., for the sole purpose of adding to their pecuniary profit. Mr. LaFollette excites a certain amount of interest not only by what he says but by the extraordinary manner in which he says it. He alternately shouts and whispers, crouches, throws up his arms, bends double and pounds his desk or stamps his foot. At times his voice rises to a perfect scream and a listener who could not see him might imagine murder were being done. He is a star actor in the Senate.

The present indications are that before my next letter is written the Aldrich bill will have been passed by the Senate with every Republican vote, save La Folette's, and about eight Democratic votes. The Senate committee on Finance has stricken out the railway bond provigion of the bill, had done so in fact before Mr. La Follette made his speech, and this, it is believed, will serve to disarm most of the opposition in the House, while the President is seeking to secure its passage and urging members of both houses who call upon him to vote for it.

The President has recently shocked a great many people in Washington by urging the District Attorney to demand a jail sentence for the President of the American National Bank and the Washington Chamber of Commerce. This man, who is wealthy and influential, and has been making and selling, as a side issue, a head-ache remedy and a "brain food" both of which he guaranteed "free from injurious drugs." Analysis has shown, however, that both contain injurious drugs which will almost certainly affect the heart and which are likely to result in drug habits. This is the first conviction under the Pure Food and Drug Act and the President takes the ground that if a wealthy bank president is made to serve a jail sentence at the beginning it will have a most beneficial effect in promoting observance of the law.

There has been a great deal of Johnson talk in Washington this week and home of the Democratic leaders are beginning to believe that the Minnesota Governor may stand a chance of nomination at Denver. It appears at this distance as if the Minnesotian was in absolute earnest in his effort to capture the nomination and as he is practically the only opponent of Mr. Bryan thus far it seems altogether likely that the opposition to Bryan will all center on Johnson. That this will amount to enough to result in giving Johnson the nomination few men will predict at this time, the majority believing that Mr. Bryan will have things all his own way when the convention meets next July.

THE MAN AND HIS JOB

By Herbert J. Hapgood.

There is nothing more harmful to a man's business than the failure to deliver goods on time. When you promise a customer to get his stuff at a certain hour, you should get it there at all costs. If you fail to keep your word, all the excuses in the world will not help matters in the least.

Very often it seems an utter impossibility to make good a promise of this kind, and then you get busy digging up excuses. I have often wished that I had recorded all the ridiculous excuses that people have made when I reminded them that they had gone back on their word. One chap had the ingenuity to say that the delivery boy went insane while on his way over and had to be removed to a hospital. Then, of course, another boy had to go uptown to the hospital to get the package, causing several hours' delay as a consequence.

"They are on the way now," or "You should have received them by this time," are phrases more distasteful to me than medicine. They are not only false, but also lack originality, and a shipping clerk who can't think up better excuses has no right to his job.

I once heard of an absent-minded shipping clerk who lost his position and succeeded in getting a place in a doctor's office. One day, an excited voice came over the telephone, "Why don't you send the doctor? I've called up several times, and —." The ex-shipping clerk cut her short, and in a mechanical sort of way, rattled back: "Yes, will be over in a minute, ma'am; just putting 'im on the wagon."

That is about the value of the excuses offered for non-delivery of goods.

Fund for Olympic Games.

COCOANUT MEAL AS A DAIRY FEED

By John M. Scott, of Florida Agricultural Experiment Station.

COCOANUT MEAL.

In recent years the manufacture of cocoanut oil on a large scale from the dried "meat" of the cocoanut (copra) has given a by-product known as cocoanut meal. This material has been placed on the markets as a dairy food. A chemical analysis of the cocoanut meal with which our experiments were conducted indicated that its apparent feeding value was in excess of half that of cottonseed meal.

CONDITIONS OF THE EXPERIMENT.

Four cows were selected from the dairy herd and divided into two lots, so that the period of lactation in each lot would be as nearly comparable as possible. The feeding time was divided into three equal periods of twenty-one days each, with seven days preliminary feeding before each of the three periods, so as to change the feeding gradually. Each lot received the same amount of bran and shorts; but the cottonseed meal and cocoanut meal were not fed in equal, but in equivalent rations, which were calculated from the results of the chemical analysis.

RESULTS OBTAINED.

The experiment proper lasted sixty-three days, during which time the cows which were fed with cottonseed meal produced 1,888.5 pounds of milk, and the cows which received cocoanut meal gave 1,844 pounds of milk; so that the balance in favor of cottonseed meal was only 44.5 pounds for the whole period, or an average of a little more than 11 ounces a day. (One gallon of milk weighs 8.6 pounds.)

From the above results, we find that one pound of cottonseed meal is nearly equal to two pounds of cocoanut meal for milk production. This corresponds nearly to the results of the chemical analyses of these two materials. In other words, our experiments indicate that a unit of protein from cocoanut meal is very nearly, but not quite, equal to a unit of protein from cottonseed meal.

FEED CONSUMED.

In this experiment the total amount of feeds consumed were as follows:

First Test—Cocoanut meal, 453 pounds; bran, 1,008 pounds; shorts, 1,008 pounds. Second Test—Cottonseed meal, 252 pounds; bran, 1,008 pounds; shorts, 1,008 pounds.

One pound of cottonseed meal with the proper amount of bran and shorts produced 7.49 pounds of milk; while one pound of cocoanut meal with the corresponding amount of bran and shorts produced only 4.06 pounds of milk.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS.

So far as we are able to detect, the cocoanut meal had no bad effects on the general health or constitutions of the animals. After the first few feeds the cows all seemed to relish the cocoanut meal, and apparently ate it as heartily as they did cottonseed meal. The cows were weighed at regular intervals, and a comparison shows that they all gained a little in weight during the period of the experiment.

The test reported here was not conducted during the best season of the year for the dairy cow. The hot weather of July and August, when accompanied by an abundance of flies and mosquitoes, is not conducive to a good yield of milk. This, no doubt, accounts in part for the low daily average yield per cow, which was a little less than two gallons. This is what would be called only a fair yield for a good dairy cow. A good cow ought to give an average of 2.5 gallons of milk a day.

Appointment Postponed.

Washington, March 23.—It was announced at the department of justice Thursday that the appointment of a federal judge to succeed Charles D. Clark of the Middle district of Tennessee, would not be made until the end of next week, the appointment being postponed to enable the department to thoroughly canvass the situation, a number of names having been suggested for the appointment.

Large Lumber Company Failed.

Mobile, Ala., March 23.—A special from Jackson, Ala., says that the McIntyre Lumber company has failed. The company originally represented a capitalization of $1,000,000. Recently it purchased the Zimmerman Lumber company in the same vicinity, capitalized at $500,000, making the total liabilities of the company about $2,000,000. No reason is assigned for the failure other than the financial conditions.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Florida Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Florida readers.

A. Oerting, seaman, of 415 L. street, Pensacola, Fla., tells how to do it. He says: "From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I can strongly recommend them to anyone in need of a good medicine for the kidneys. Kidney complaint and backache caused me suffering at intervals for years. The first or second attack I did not mind, but as time went by they grew worse and at times laid me up. I could hardly walk and it was a difficult matter to straighten up after stooping, while the kidney secretions were irregular and unnatural. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. From personal experience I know that this remedy can be depended upon to fulfill the representations made for it."

"WASTE: WOMAN'S OPPORTUNITY"

The prominent part women can take in the national movement for the conservation of the country's natural resources, to discuss which President Roosevelt has invited the Governors of all the States and Territories to meet with him at the White House in May, is forcibly brought out in the March number of Appleton's Magazine, which says:

"In a broader, though not more important, field than the kitchen and the home the ability of American women to support effectively resistance to the national tendency toward wastefulness offers them an opportunity and imposes a duty. These are to be found in combating the wanton waste of the nation's natural resources. Never in the history of the world has a more inviting occasion offered itself to women than is presented by the vital necessity of economizing the natural resources of the United States.

"If the women of America take up earnestly the question of national waste, the prosperous future of the country is assured. It is peculiarly woman's work because the time is short, because men are notoriously slow to move, even knowing the facts, and because, through motherhood bent upon the accomplishment of a purpose, the sentiment of a nation may be changed in a single generation. Women may hope for a sufficient measure of success in teaching their menkind economy to get the movement well under way, but they may look forward to complete achievement in inculcating in their children a spirit which will change America from the most wasteful nation in the world to one of the most prudent.

"The problem would be as ridiculously simple as it is actually alarming were it not for the inertia of the public, superinduced by the careless disregard of all save the movement by the rank and file of men.

"All that is lacking is public sentiment for the conservation of natural resources, the substitution of a policy of national economy for one of national waste. The same benefits might be made to accrue and the same dangers averted with varying degrees of immediate personal benefit to each individual and in ascending scale to posterity, by the careful husbanding of the other natural resources in sum total and separately.

"Such is a brief part of the story of national waste. So far as the past is concerned we may view it charitably as an inevitable consequence of our favored situation and the superabundance of our natural riches, but for the future any such complacent view can lead only to national impoverishment and disaster. Reform must begin with individauls before it can spread to the mass and the spirit of intelligent economy can be inculcated successfully only by the women of the country. The preservation of the forests as a single cause that is of most pressing importance, is one that should appeal particularly to organizations of American women, and it can be helped tremendously by their support, while the slower process of educating the individaul to abhor waste and thereby developing an enlightened demand for the conservation of national resources is going on."

KOREAN DIPLOMAT ATTACKED.

Set Upon and Severely Beaten by Other Koreans at 'Frisco.

San Francisco, Cal., March 24.—D. W. Stevens, diplomatic adviser to the Korean council of state, who arrived on Friday from Korea, was attacked and knocked down by a committee of four angry Koreans Sunday night in the lobby of his hotel.

Only the prompt arrival of guests and employees of the hotel in response to his loud cries for help saved his life, for the Koreans declared later they would have killed him.

Stevens was severely bruised and scratched, but was not dangerously injured.

Stevens in an interview upon his arrival said the Korean people have been greatly benefited by Japanese protection, and that they are beginning to look more favorably upon it. He also said that the Korean peasants have welcomed the Japanese and the official class is beginning to think well of them on the ground that the only hope for Korea is in a reorganization of the old institutions on the lines proposed by Japan. Other statements, all of which were favorable to Japan in relation to their native country, made the Koreans angry.

After the assault Stevens went to his room. The hotel lobby was at the time thrown into a state of intense excitement by the affray. Stevens had his injuries attended to and he refused to be seen, as he was in no condition to discuss the attack which he firmly believed was murderous in its intent.

FERTILIZER EXPERIMENTS ON COTTON

By A. W. Blair, Florida Agricultural Experiment Station.

FERTILIZERS USED.

During both seasons here referred to, the experiments were conducted on second-quality high pine land, and Sea Island cotton seed was planted. The experiment field was divided into tenth-acre plots, which were fertilized with a variety of fertilizers in varying amounts. The following mixture was taken as the standard for an acre:

200 pounds of acid phosphate (14 to 15 per cent.)
150 pounds of bright cottonseed meal.
50 pounds of muriate of potash (48 to 50 per cent.)

400 pounds.

The quantities of these materials were increased and decreased singly and collectively within reasonable limits. Other materials were also tried; but they did not give any better results, and in most cases were not so good. If it is desired, kainit may be substituted in the above formula for the muriate of potash; in which case four times as much kainit as muriate should be used to have the same amount of actual potash.

SOME RESULTS IN 1906.

(1) In 1906 plot 7, which received the standard, yielded an increase over the plot that received no fertilizer of about 340 pounds of seed cotton per acre. If we assume that this was worth 6c per pound, we have $20.40 as the gain, which was apparently due to the 400 pounds of fertilizer, for the two plots in question were side by side. The cost of the 400 pounds of fertilizer would probably not much exceed $5.50, thus leaving a net gain of about $14.90 per acre.

(2) Plot 19, which received this mixture at the rate of 600 pounds per acre, yielded at the rate of 150 pounds of seed cotton per acre more than the standard plot, and this was the largest yield of any of the plots in 1906. This increase, according to the price assumed, would be worth $9.00, while the additional 200 pounds of fertilizing material would cost about $2.75, leaving a net gain over the standard of $6.25 per acre; and a net gain of $21.15 over the unfertilized plot.

(3) When, however, we put on 800 pounds per acre, that is, double the standard (plot 20), the yield was not quite as good as with 600 pounds of fertilizer. This would seem to indicate that there is no profit in applying much, if any, more than 600 pounds per acre of a fertilizer of the grade mentioned.

(4) When only one-half the standard amount was applied, that is, 200 pounds per acre, there was a falling off from the standard. The net gain from plot 18, which was thus fertilized, was about $12.25 more than the unfertilized plot, and $2.65 less than the standard.

SOME RESULTS IN 1907.

The results for the past year are not as conclusive as those for 1906, owing to the injurious effects of the root-knot (for a description of this disease see Farmers' Bulletin, No. 302, U. S. Dep. of Agr.); though here, as in 1906, plot 19, which received 600 pounds per acre, gave the largest yield of any (800 pounds of seed-cotton per acre); while plot 18, which immediately adjoined it, and received only 200 pounds of fertilizer (half the standard) per acre, yielded nearly the same as in 1906 (350 pounds per acre). It is especially significant that these two plots, lying side by side, should give results which correspond so closely, plot for plot, for the two years; since the experiment was conducted in Columbia county in 1906, and in Alachua county in 1907.

CONCLUSIONS.

The facts so far seem to indicate plainly that there is profit in applying 400 to 600 pounds per acre of a complete fertilizer on poor grade pine land, but that to go much beyond this amount is not profitable. That the practice, which is still quite prevalent, of putting on 100 to 200 pounds per acre of a poorly balanced fertilizer (such as cottonseed meal or kainit), is unprofitable, seems even more clearly indicated. There seem good reasons for believing that the man who has been using 100 to 200 pounds of cottonseed meal or kainit per acre on cotton, may increase his yield to a profitable extent by applying instead 200 to 400 pounds or more of a complete fertilizer.

Albert W. Gilchrist

Candidate for Governor of Florida

No faction, machine or ring, brought him out. He came out as a candidate alone and single-handed. He will be glad to receive the support of the corporations, of the anti-corporations, the prohibitionists and the anti-prohibitionists, of the local optionists, the Christians and the Jews and of the Gentiles, the "Publicans and sinners." He would even accept the support of the Pharisees.

The corporations cannot do without the people, and the people cannot do without the corporations. Neither should be allowed to oppress the other. Capital is organized, labor should organize.

The license tax law licensing each little enterprise should be amended in order that taxation should bear more evenly.

Article XIX of the Constitution provides for Local Option. The qualified electors (not the Governor) approve or veto constitutional amendments. He is not on the "recently constructed band wagon."

He commenced life working in Quincy, Florida, at a salary of $15 per month, and boarded himself. He has himself been a hard-working, struggling man and he knows what it means in others. He has never married, he has always had obligations. His life has been spent more in thoughtful consideration of other people than of himself. He feels sure he will be elected "if he gets enough votes." He does not propose to trade off a single office. There is honor in being Governor. If it is tainted with dishonor he does not want the office.
